[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, Va., May 13.—Richmond bunched hits in the seventh inning this afternoon in the closing game of the series, and defeated the locals by the score of 2 to 0. The game was well played throughout, the Shoemakers having a few more hard chances than the Lawmakers, as they made one error, while the visitors had two.

Reveille was a complete puzzle to the home team, and they never had a chance to score, only three men reaching second and none going to third. The Shoemakers had three chances to score on a single, but Reveille could not be located at the right time. Schuman started off wild for the home team, walking three men in the first inning and the first man in the second, but he managed to get out of these holes by hard work. After his fourth pass the Lawmakers went down one, two, three, until one was out in the seventh. Then Ison laid a bunt down. Westlake waited for it to roll foul, but it would not. Ison beat the ball to first, and went to second on Westlake's throw to the right of the sack. Boyd lifted a Texas leaguer just out of Bowen's reach, and Ison went to third. Boyd pliffed, Westlake making no effort to get him, but attempted to get Ison napping at third. Then George Cowan rapped a slashing single to centre, and both runners went home. There was no other chance to score.

Kirkpatrick's work at third was brilliant, several of his chances apparently being impossible, but he made them. Lipe's work was also fine, but he did not have Kirkpatrick's hard attempts. Raley was out of the game on account of his left arm being injured by a pitched ball. A number of Richmond rooters attending the Odd-Fellows' meeting were in the grandstand, and they enjoyed the game immensely.

COLLEGE FIELD DAY

Richmond College will hold a big field day and athletic meet on May 23. At 9:30 A. M. a tennis tournament will be held, and an hour later the academic and law departments will line up in a baseball game.

Beginning at 2 P. M. the regular track events will be held, including the 100-yard dash, 200-yard dash, 440-yard dash, 880-yard run, 1-mile run, running high jump, running broad jump, pole vault, shot put, hammer throw, throwing baseball.

A committee headed by Mr. E. A. Dunlap, Jr., will award prizes to first, second and third places in all events.

HORSES CHAFE FOR THE BUGLE TO CALL

This is horse day, the first of a great congress of horses and horsemen, and the beginning of a brilliant three-day meet out at the Fair Grounds. The show horses, well groomed and anxious to enter the ring, await the call of the bugle, and the clean-limbed racers are chafing for the opportunity to pound the turf and skim the many hurdles.

These next three days promise to make the fourteenth annual spring meet of the Deep Run Hunt Club a memorable one in the history of Virginia shows.

The program starts promptly at 2 o'clock this afternoon, at which time eleven handsome harness horses will parade before the judges for the much coveted ribbons.

After this will come the saddle class, whose eleven horses will compete for the various prizes. All of these are good ones, and it will be a hard class to judge.

The third exhibit will be the class for horse and harness, some of the best of the breed. The horses will be seen. This will be followed by the jumping contests, first of which is the green hunter class, in which thirty-seven horses will face the judges, who will have passed upon their conformation in the morning, so only performance will be considered in the afternoon.

The fifth exhibit will be lightweight hunters, wherein there are twenty-four entries. In this class conformation will be judged in the morning also. With the exception of the Warrenton show, both of these classes are record-breakers.

After this will come the pair class, in which two hunters jump abreast. This will prove attractive, and nine pairs will face the judges.

The first one is a steeplechase of about two miles, for hunters qualified under the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association rules, and the best hunters from the hunt clubs in Virginia, Maryland and the District of Columbia are entered. All of the horses in this race are schooled so well over the jumps that it seems impossible to pick the winner.

The second is five and a half furlongs, and has seventeen entries. If there were any more this race would have to be divided.

The open steeplechase is the third event, in which five crack timber topers will face the starter. This race is expected to be one of the prettiest races of the week.

The line-up was as follows:
Bank of Richmond—Bennett, left field; Harwood, first base; Trevett, second base; Gregory, third base; Gill, pitcher; Lough, catcher; Talley, shortstop; Woodward, right field; and Quarles, centre field.

HOME RUNS GIVE DANVILLE GAME

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DANVILLE, Va., May 13.—Two home runs, one of them being made when the bases were full, featured the game here to-day with Norfolk. In which the Tobaccoists had the visitors out-clasped at almost every point. The Crew was never in the contest, and only one man got as far as second base during the entire nine innings. All of the scoring was the result of the home runs, the last of which time being sent over the park fence.

The first run was made by Powell. In the fifth inning Walsh singled, Powell singled, and Fisher was hit by a pitched ball. The grandstand and bleachers were wild when Jake Lenn, who holds the record for such stunts in the Virginia League, performed one of his old-time feats, which sent in four runs. Walsh was in the best of form to-day and was invincible at all times. With the exception of the fifth inning, Long pitched good ball for the visitors, and secured two of the four hits made off Walsh. Aside from the two home runs the contest was featured by two brilliant double plays by Danville's infield and a wonderful running catch by Doyle. The visitors had little chance to do any sensational work, so completely was Walsh on his job.
